

Andreas Tsilimparis

Andreas Tsilimparis is an associate within our Competition & Antitrust team. Andreas advises clients across a wide range of sectors and business practices on competition as well as state aid law issues.

Andreas holds a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) and a Master of Laws (LLM) in International Business Law from the London School of Economics and Political Science.

He has experience in the administrative procedures before the HCC, including the settlement procedure, as well as the review of policies adopted by companies and their day-to-day commercial issues related to competition and state aid law. Further, he also undertakes the drafting of documents, research of Greek and European legal issues as well as the translation of legal documents.

Prior to joining the Competition & Antitrust team, Andreas was a member of the firm's trainee team.

Antitrust & Competition

Notable Antitrust & Competition cases

- Advised a Greek subsidiary of a multinational group active in the agrochemicals sector, in the ex-officio investigation initiated by the Hellenic Competition Commission (HCC) regarding alleged infringements related to abuse of dominance and/or restrictive vertical agreements.
- Advised DEPA Commercial S.A., the public gas corporation, on the creation of a joint venture in the commercialization of SSLNG and the submission to the Hellenic Competition Commission (HCC) of a respective merger clearance.

Memberships

- Athens Bar Association

Languages

- English
- Greek
- German

Qualifications

- 2017 Bachelor of Laws (LLB) from London School of Economics and Political science.
- 2018 Master of Laws (LLM) in International Business Law from the London School of Economics and Political science.