

Anna Goula

Anna Goula is an Associate within our leading Litigation & White Collar Crime team.

Anna holds a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) as well as a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Private International Law and Law of International Business Transactions from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens.

Specializing in civil, commercial and criminal law, she advises and represents our clients in complex litigation disputes, as well as out of court settlements. Her experience covers a broad range of issues, including contractual breaches, tortious liability, and unjust enrichment.

Memberships

- Athens Bar Association

Languages

- Greek
- English
- French

Qualifications

- LL.M., National & Kapodistrian University of Athens (2025)
- LLB, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens (2023)
- Attestation des études politiques, Sciences Po Lyon (2022)
- Fellow of the Southwestern Institute for International and Comparative Law, Texas, USA (2023)