

Argyro Ioannidou

Argyro Ioannidou is an Associate working within our Intellectual Property and TMT Department.

Argyro advises both domestic and international pharma, cosmetics and technology clients notably on IP and Data Protection law matters. She has experience in dealing with privacy issues, with an emphasis on European and American privacy laws, Artificial intelligence and Blockchain legal frameworks, Open Data as well as Financial Technologies.

Prior to joining Lambadarios, Argyro has also worked as an in-house EMEA privacy counsel for one of the leading tech companies in Paris, gaining a thorough knowledge on a variety of corporate, contractual and privacy matters.

Memberships

- Thessaloniki's Bar Association

Languages

- Greek
- English
- French
- Spanish

Qualifications

- LLM in Data law, Digital administrations and Open governments, Paris 1 Panthéon – Sorbonne (2021-2022)
- LLM courses in International Investment Law, University of Aberdeen (2021)
- LLB in Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (2020)

Scholarships:

- State Scholarships Foundation (IKY) (2021-2022)