

Christina Kyrgialani

Christina Kyrgialani is an Associate working within our Banking and Finance team.

She specializes in financing transactions mainly in the renewable energy sector as well as in infrastructure and real estate practice groups. She also has experience on environmental and renewable energy licensing and regulatory projects.

She is involved in various phases of financing transactions, such as reviewing and drafting contractual documentation in addition to participating in large-scale due diligence reviews.

Memberships

- Athens Bar Association (2022)

Languages

- Greek
- English
- German
- Italian
- Spanish

Qualifications

- LLM, in International and European Energy Law, Democritus University of Thrace (2023)
- LLB, School of Law, Democritus University of Thrace (2020)