

Katerina Vogka

Katerina Vogka focuses on civil, commercial and corporate law and she assists in advising both domestic and international clients on commercial and corporate issues, with particular focus on contractual work in the area of payment services and food and beverage.

She is also part of our Litigation team, and handles civil and commercial law cases, employment claims and energy matters.

Katerina holds a Master's Degree in Civil Law and Modern Financial Transactions (LLM).

Qualifications

- LLB, School of Law, University of Athens