

Pavlina Myrilla

Pavlina is a member of our trainee team.

She holds a Bachelor's degree in Law from Neapolis University in Cyprus, graduating with distinction and achieving the highest academic performance in her class.

During her studies, Pavlina was actively involved in the university's Legal Clinic, which specializes in Human Rights Law. Through this program, she provided legal support to a law firm in Nicosia, gaining valuable experience in international and human rights matters.

Her practice covers a wide range of legal issues, mainly in the areas of Corporate, Banking, Litigation, and Real Estate Law. She is involved in legal research, translations, and the drafting and filing of legal documents.

Languages

- Greek
- English
- German

Qualifications

- LLB, Neapolis University Pafos (2024)