

Silvia Lamprinopoulou

Silvia is an associate in our Litigation & White Collar Crime and Arbitration & Dispute Resolution practices. She focuses on complex civil and commercial disputes with a cross-border dimension, representing clients from multiple jurisdictions in matters involving international contracts and other multijurisdictional litigation. Her experience covers the full spectrum of dispute resolution mechanisms, ranging from alternative dispute resolution processes to litigation and arbitration proceedings before all competent authorities.

Silvia holds an LLB from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens and an LLM in Comparative and International Dispute Resolution from Queen Mary University of London, where she graduated first overall with the highest academic distinction. Her work has been published in the Kluwer Arbitration Blog and the Global Arbitration Review. She has also served as a Research Assistant and is currently a Fellow at the School of International Arbitration.
