

Thomas Ntintas

Thomas Ntintas is an associate within our Litigation and TMT practice.

He holds a bachelor's degree in Law from Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, and started working within our firm as a trainee.

He specializes in the areas of civil and criminal law and procedure. Thomas has engaged in a variety of complex litigious matters, including criminal proceedings regarding embezzlement, fraud, non-compliance to antitrust, environmental, employment, tax and urban planning legislation, civil claims due to data breaches, defamation, tortious liability and breach of contract.

He undertakes legal research, document drafting and preparation of hearings before courts, prosecuting and administrative authorities.

Languages

- Greek
- English

Qualifications

- LLB, School of Law, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (2021)